

The No Call program in Wisconsin seems to be working well, so I see no reason for the FCC to change it.